

Newsletter update

Remembrance Sunday

This years' service at the War Memorial was taken by Canon John Higgins accompanied by the Minister of The Church Of Scotland. In excess of 60 local residents turned out. Longtown Army Cadets laid the first wreath and 3 of their members read out the Names of the Fallen and the words of the Canadian poet, John McCrae (May 1915) "In Flanders Field"

Longtown Rainbows, Brownies also laid wreaths along with representatives from the Parish Council, Cumbria County Council, Carlisle City Council, Royal British Legion, Fire Service, First Responders, Community Centre, Longtown W.I.

Highway issues

The following Highway issues are currently being addressed.

- Speeding on the A7 and A6071. There is still a problem with drivers ignoring the speed restrictions in place driving into Longtown.
- Westlinton Bridge and flooding is a high priority.
- Flooding on road in Swan Street and outside Spar Netherby Road
- Entrance to Burnside from Swan Street will have Keep Clear marking painted
- Arthuret Road to church footpath widening will be looked at.

2018 Boundary Review

The Boundary Commission for England published its revised proposals for new constituency boundaries on 17th October.

Publication of the revised proposals mark the start of an 8 week consultation which they are inviting people to view and comment on the new boundaries.

The Boundary Commission for England must make its recommendations for new Parliamentary boundaries to Parliament in September 2018. This is the last round of public consultation.

Visit www.bce2018.org.uk to see the new proposal, compare them with current boundaries, and tell them what you think.

The revised proposal to the Parliamentary boundary for the Carlisle Constituency is shown as now matching the Carlisle City Council district boundary footprint,

The deadline for consultation responses is Monday 11th December 2017